R. D. Sutherland Called By Death

Community Mourns the Sudden Passing of One of its Most Highly Respected Citizens.

The sudden death of Robert Dunbar Sutherland which occurred last Monday, September 23rd, came as a great shock to Crossfield and the surrounding district.

Mr. Sutherland was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, and came to Canada in 1907, staying in Manitoba for three years before moving to Alberta in 1910. He was employed with the Merchants' Bank for 12 years except during the last year when he returned to the Old Country and served in France as a Lieutenant in the Royal Field Artillery.

Returning to Canada in 1919, he farmed east of Carstairs until 1931 when he accepted the post of secretary of the Municipal District of Rosebud No. 280, a position which he filled with exceptional efficiency until his death.

Though of a quiet, unassuming nature, his keen interest in every thing pertaining to the betterment of the community, his pleasing personality and sterling qualities, won for him a wide circle of friends by whom his passing is felt as a deep personal loss.

He was Worshipful Master of Crossfield Masonic Lodge No. 48; a past master of the Carstairs Masonic Lodge No. 20; past president of the Crossfield branch of the Canadian Legion; a member of the Presbyterian Church and of the Alberta Military Institute; an active member of the Crossfield and District Board of Trade and the Veterans Volunteer Reserve, and was instructing officer of the local squadron 15th Alberta Light Horse. It was largely through his initiative that the monument honoring the Great War dead from this district was erected in Crossfield Park and the flag beside it was flown at half mast in respect to his memory.

He is survived by his wife, Mary; two brothers, Colin, Long Island, N. Y., and Jack of Burma, India.

A full military funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the United Church, the floral offerings banked along the altar forming a background for the flag-draped casket. The service was conducted by Rev. A. D. Currie of the Anglican Church and interment was in Crossfield cemetery. The pallbearers, all past masters of the Masonic order, were A. S. Gough, O. Rostrup, and George Darling, of Carstairs, F. T. Baker, C. H. McMillan and D. I. Hall of Crossfield.

The Veterans Volunteer Reserve and the Carstairs and Crossfield Masonic Lodges attended in a body the Masonic graveside services being conducted by the Crossfield Lodge.

A number of Officers and a firing squad of 15 from the Calgary Squadron of the 15th Alberta

Exhibition Window

Will you fellows that have some particularly nice samples of your garden or field products, be good enough to bring in a sample to the Chronicle, so that we can fix up a window on main street showing some of the fine products that can be raised in our district. Bring in oats, wheat, barley or any other items you feel is extra good and worth a place of prominence in our exhibition window.

Harvest Progress Speeding Up

The weather seems to be more settled now, and threshing machines are humming. The yield is very good, but the quality has been reduced considerably.

If the weather holds good another ten days most of the harvest work will be cleaned up. Wheat in the swath is drying out fairly good, but in some instances badly sprouted.

Freedom of the Great Outdoors, of the Forests and Streams of Alberta, was conferred on John Coleman, of San Francisco, President of Ducks Unlimited, by Premier Aberhart at the Legislative Building Monday last. On a visit to Western Canada to inspect conservation measures of the Ducks Unlimited organization, Mr. Coleman planned to try the duck shooting which his efforts have tended to improve so effectively.

JUST IN CASE—

It would be an excellent idea if the School Board would personally inspect the fire escape and the doors leading thereto, and see if they are in good condition to open quickly in case of fire. When fire comes, it's rather late to dig up tools to open the way out.

WELL DONE CANADA—

The second War Loan for $300,000,000 is well over subscribed. Small subscriptions were outstanding. Citizens responded magnificently from coast-to-coast.

The response shown illustrates how Canadians are putting their shoulder to the wheel to speed up our Victory over Barbarism.

THE RED CROSS CALLS—

A call went out on September 23 for five million dollars to carry on the work of the Red Cross.

It is the duty of every citizen to give as generously as possible when your local representative calls on you.

The Soldier, Sailor, Airman and Civilian needs the care of the Red Cross, and only when ample supplies are available can the best service be rendered.

Your dollars will provide every comfort to those who have gone "over there" to fight for us.

WHY NOT?

Now that we have millions of bushels of good wheat available, and storage space not so plentiful, as individuals we could purchase a bushel of wheat or more and in a short time we would have sufficient to make a gift shipment to England.

A campaign of this nature would soon pile up a few million bushels which Great Britain could use very nicely, and at the same time we would be making room at home for the same number of bushels farmers could market.

This plan as you see would have a two fold purpose—supplying Britain with food, and making available storage space for our wheat at home.

ADVERTISING- THE BUILDER

(From the July, 1940 issue "Nation's" Business)

Of recent years it has been the fashion among radical reformers to question the value of advertising. The question is easily answered.

Nothing in the world sells until it is known. No successful commodity blunders its own way into a store and waits until somebody by some strange chance blunders into buying it, says Nation's Business. If merchants and factory managers had not hired salesman, and had not placed advertising, this country would still be what it was in 1740, a handful of poor villages and penniless farmers, dotted on the edges of enormous forests.

Nation distribution, in its simplest terms, means that you can get your favorite foods, beverages, clothes, shoes, cigarettes, soaps, cosmetics, books, magazines and all other manufactured articles, wherever in the country you are. Bringing this about, in a country 3000 miles wide, and once apparently divided forever by the Rocky Mountains, has been no child's play. It would never have taken place without national advertising.

Railroads and steamship lines and highways provided the means of transport. But what is the use of transporting goods from a factory in Hamilton to a store near a family in British Columbia if the goods are not known and, therefore, are not bought?

Advertising is the dissemination of news about better and less costly goods than people could make for themselves at home.

Advertising spreads the news and speeds up the sales of only those products and services which deserve to be speeded. Any intelligent young Canadian, no matter how distorted or ignorant teaching he has received in school, is far smarter than those teachers and text book writers who claim that the intensive advertising of good commodities and services has been a detriment.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. Strange

Millions of farmers and other workers in the countries of North and South America would suffer severely, it was thought because the normal European markets for their products have been shut off by the British blockade.

History reveals that human suffering always ends in strenuous protests and in discontent; and so it was feared that this discontent would finally result in pressure being brought to bear upon Great Britain to ease her blockade against Nazi controlled Europe, and perhaps even to conclude a compromise peace with Hitler.

Fortunately for all, the United States, with foresight and generosity, has stepped into the breach, and has made available to the various nations of the North and South American Continents, a loan of five hundred million dollars with which to purchase and to hold the products of their farmers and others whose European markets have been temporarily lost. Fifty million dollars of this amount, it is thought by some, may even be available to Canada for the holding of our own wheat.

This timely action on the part of the United States will probably be found to be as effective in helping to preserve Democracy as was the recent transfer of fifty U.S.A. destroyers to the British Navy.

Following factors have tended to raise price: U.S.A. lends five hundred million dollars to American Continental countries with which to purchase surplus farm and other products—Fodder shortage reduces livestock supplies in Denmark—Preliminary reports indicate Europe's wheat harvest may be 14 percent lower than in 1939—Importation of wheat by Japan this year is possible as a result of reduced rice production.

Following factors have tended to lower price: Canadian wheat supply for current marketing season is largest in the history of the country—Seeding of the new Argentine corn crop is progressing under favorable conditions—Canada increases cheese and milk production for Britain—Substantial increases in planting of beans is reported in Spain.

would do well to consider its accomplishments.

It has raised the standard of living by introducing new product after new product into our consciousness and homes. It has reduced the price of commodity after commodity by increasing acceptance and decreasing manufacturing and selling cost.

More than any other force, advertising in this way contributes to democracy. It breaks down the wall between our rural and urban populations. The farmer and small-town dweller learn about new and better things as quickly as those in the great metropolitan market centres, says Nation's Business. Advertising has sold us better habits in eating, dressing, shaving, bathing. It has sold us better ways of cooking, cleaning our clothes and houses and getting from place to place.

Those who oppose advertising as an essential part of mass selling are really opposing mass production and in so doing, are trying to deny to the average person the articles he wants at prices he can afford to pay

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. C. W. Richardson and family wish to thank all friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy in their recent bereavement.

The following poem has been sent in by John Carmichael, having been written by a friend triended, with him as a gunner in the R.C.A.F.

"If I must be an aerial gunner,
Then Lord please grant me grace,
That I may have this station,
With a smile upon my face.

"I may have wished to be a pilot,
But if we were all pilots,
Where would the Air Force be?

"It takes guts to be a gunner,
To sit out in the tail,
When the Messerschmitts are coming,
And the slugs begin to fall.

"The pilot is the chaffeur:
It is his job to fly the plane,
But it's we who do the fighting:
Tho' we may not get the fame;

"But we are here to win the war,
And until this job is done,
Let's forget our personal feelings,
And get behind the gun.

"If we must all be gunners,
Then let us make this bet,
We'll make the best damn gunners,
Who left this station yet."
